Miss Frances E. Willard, National President of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, will deliver a temperance lecture in this city on Tuesday evening next, at the Hall of the House of Representatives. She is one of the finest talkers upon the American rostrum and should certainly be greeted by a large audience. During her visit here Miss Willard will be the guest of Miss Sallie Jackson and Mrs. J. C. Morton.

Resolutions

Read before the Baptist Sunday school, Sunday morning March 1, 1886, relative to the death of Miss Minta Stephens.

MISSSES. It has been the will of God to remove from us our beloved scholar and friend, Miss Minta Stephens, who in life was a teacher and earned Christ and at the end died the death of the righteous; therefore be it

Resolved, That in bowing to the will of the Most High, we deeply mourn the loss of one possessed of such rare and noble virtue.

Resolved, That, restraining the power of words in the presence of death, we tender the bereaved relations of the deceased the comfort that our sympathy affords.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be signed upon the records of the school, and be presented to the family of the deceased, also a copy be handed to the papers of this city for publication.

Good Results in Every Case.

D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes, that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, did so and was entirely cured by the use of a few bottles. He has since continued to have it in his family for all Coughs and Colds with the best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery. Trial Bottles free at Joe LeCompte's Drug Store, 5

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Biters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the limb amputated, or lose my limb. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitter, and seven boxes Bucklin's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Biters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklin's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box by Joe LeCompte, 5

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

FRANKFORT, MARCH 20, 1886.

The alarm of fire Monday night was occasioned by the burning out of a chimney of a small grocery on East Third street, South Side.

Mr. Darsie preaches to-morrow morning on "The Work of Faith," and at night on "Our Refuge in Christ." You are invited.

The warm sunshine and pleasant weather of the past week has caused the merchants to put up their awnings and spring poetry to sprout.

We have used Tongaline in several cases of neuralgia and rheumatism, and relief has followed its use in every instance. Drs. N. A. & A. McCoy, Pinson, Tenn.

Col. Richard H. Taylor, of this city, left for Louisville Thursday afternoon, where he has secured the position of clerk in the Commercial Hotel on Main street, near Seventh.

Rev. J. Norton Chestnut, formerly of this city, but now rector of the Church of the Advent, St. Louis, Mo., has received a call to take charge of St. Peter's Church in Louisville.

A large number of fine bass, silver perch and suckers have been taken out of the river with dip nets this week. We understand a large number are also being destroyed by the use of dynamite, which ought to be put a stop to.

Mr. W. H. Settle, formerly of this city, died suddenly Wednesday evening at his home in Louisville, of heart disease. He leaves a second wife and seven children, besides the children of his first marriage—Mrs. Evan E. and James Settle, of Owen county.

Monday morning while some hands were threshing oats for seed on the farm of Mr. Wm. M. Wilkerson, near the Forks of Elkhorn, the straw caught fire from the engine of the thresher and before the flames could be subdued nine stacks of oats, valued at $300 were consumed.

Rev. G. F. Bagby is now traveling in the interest of the Foreign Mission Board of his Church and will be absent from home for six or eight weeks, during which time his pulpit will be filled by ministers from Louisville. Dr. Manley will occupy the pulpit to-morrow morning and evening.

On motion of that great statesman and patriot, Col. Adam Renaker, in the Legislature yesterday, a salute of seventeen guns was fired on Arsenal Hill in honor of St. Patrick's day.—Lexington Transcrip. 1886.

A little off. Adam moved, but the guns didn't boom that anybody knows of. The cannons have refused to speak anymore at Adam's command.

The dress making department of Messrs. Weltzel & O'Donnell's establishment is now open, a large force is busily engaged in turning out all the latest style spring and summer suits for ladies and it will be their aim to give prompt attention to all work of this kind. The lady having this department in charge has large experience in the business and will be sure to please all who may give her a call.

A circular meeting of four churches; Mt. Pleasant, South Benson, Forks of Elkhorn and Frankfort, in the interests of missions, will commence in Frankfort on the 4th Sunday in March, 28th inst., at the Baptist Church. Several ministers will be present, including Revs. R. L. Thurmon, J. H. Spencer, J. R. Sankey, Thomas Stevenson and others, and participate in the proceedings. Meetings in morning, afternoon and night. All invited to attend.

Messrs. Milam & McKee having failed to get sufficient power out of their water motor, have taken it out of their Jewel Mill and put in a fifteen horse power steam engine and are now prepared to turn out 100 bushels of meal and ten barrels of flour per day. The engine is an Atlas, was put up by Messrs. J. B. Meek and Richard Weaver and gives all the power necessary to run all the machinery of the mill to its fullest capacity. It was started up for the first time Tuesday morning and ran as slick as a ribbon.

J. W. Bohannan is a candidate for re-election as Magistrate.

The remains of Kentucky's great sculptor, Joel T. Hart, which were brought to this city from Italy about a year ago, still lie in the vault at the cemetery, and have never been interred, the appropriation made by the Legislature having been exhausted in the removal.

WANTED.—By the city of Frankfort and Franklin county, like a fellow wants a pistol in Texas, a Senator and Representative in the Legislature who will be in their seats and look to the interests of their constituents when important measures are brought up.

Dr. A. A. Willits, of Louisville, will deliver his celebrated lecture on "Sunshine" in the Hall of the House of Representatives Tuesday night, March 30th. It will be a treat that no one can afford to lose. The price of admission to all parts of the Hall will be fifty cents.

A notorious hummer of this city, who has bled the candidates to the fullest extent, and found they were beginning to grow weary of him, changed his tactics and struck one of the candidates for magistrate, the first of the week, for a small contribution for the benefit of a Sunday-school.

Mrs. Deborah Gault, widow of the late John Gault, of this county, died Monday afternoon, at her residence near Peak's Mill, after an illness of several weeks duration. The funeral took place Wednesday morning from the First Presbyterian Church in the city.

Royal Blood.

We are all kings and queens in this country, and we have a right to a good cloud as that which courses through the veins of emperors. If the blood is poor and the cheeks are pale, it is well known that Brown's Iron Bitters is the great tonic which will give color, vigor, and vitality. Mr. K. Gibson, of West Point, Miss., says, "I feel weak and debilitated; Brown's Iron Bitters made me strong and well."

Ivan Murphy, the colored Archer of America, passed through this city Wednesday morning on his way to California to visit the ranch of "Lucky" Baldwin, the millionaire, for whom he is under contract to ride this year. He will return East with the stable as soon as the racing season begins.

Miss Rose Coghlan made her appearance as a star last night at Niblo's Garden and was as charming as ever. The large audience expressed its pleasure and demands that she make another appearance before the curtain falls at the conclusion of the second act.—V. V. Advertiser.

Miss Rose Coghlan carried by storm the large audience assembled last evening at Niblo's Garden to see the Wallack Theater success, "Our Joan." There is no doubt that "Our Joan" is the woman that is capable to satisfy's every desire, and when portrayed with such faithful adherence to nature and with so much of soulfulness and force as it was last night it is not surprising that enthusiasm rises to a great height.—N. Y. News.

Miss Coghlan began an engagement in Louisville on Monday, but will appear at the Opera House in this city on Thursday evening the 25th.

The St. Patrick's celebration at the Court House Wednesday evening was largely attended by both ladies and gentlemen. The music was furnished by the Frankfort Cornet Band, and the stand was beautifully draped with green cloth ornamented with bouquets of flowers. On the wall behind the stand the green flag of Erin and the stars and stripes were fastened together, making a beautiful background. Gov. Knott presided, and opened the meeting with a few appropriate remarks, and then introduced Hon. Jas. H. Mulligan, of Lexington, who spoke for about an hour and was followed in short speeches by Hon. George Smith, of Hancock county, and John Rhees, Esq. of Russellville.

Hard Times.

While money is close, wages and prices low, expenses should be cut down in every household. Economy is the watch word for mothers, head of doctor bills, by always keeping in the house, a bottle of Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup. Stop coughing, stop smoking, stop consumption, cure Croup and pain in the Chest in one night. It is just the remedy for hard times. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Samples free. Sold by Hughes and Chiles.

From Michigan.

Mr. John J. White, a merchant in Clinton, Michigan, writes from his home under date of December 15, 1885: I have been suffering with eczema for more than a year, and have tried four different physicians, but to no permanent benefit. I then tried several patent remedies for such disease, but they all failed to bring me relief. I sought. I was in a terrible condition, being covered from head to foot with this terrible disease, and notwithstanding all I could do I continued to grow worse. At last seeing the statement of Mr. Bradley, of Detroit, of what S. S. S. had done for his wife (but my faith in patent medicines was lost) I got a bottle and got one bottle, thinking, however, it was another $1.75 thrown away. To my great astonishment and delight the terrible itching subsided. I am now on my eighth bottle, and the disease has disappeared almost, there being only a few rough places on the small of my back and legs. I am confident that a complete cure will be effected at an early day. I write this that those who are similarly afflicted may find relief.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

The Franklin County Teachers' Association met at the office of Col. T. B.
Ford on Saturday, March 18th, 1886.
Prof. Hugh Tracy was selected as chairman and Mrs. Mary T. Merna as secretary. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we approve of the late educational convention held in this city and the resolutions adopted by said convention, and urge the Leg-islaters to adopt the suggestions therein contained.

Resolved, That we recommend that dinner be held in other portions of the State.

The meeting then adjourned to meet on the 2d Saturday in April.

HUGH TRACY, Chm.

MARY T. MERNA, Sec'y.

Bridgeport.

Spring indeed.

Sowing oats in full blast.

Plant your Irish potatoes next week.
Drought prophets are now in order.
Spinning wheels seem to be in great demand.

The ground hog's predictions proved true to day.

Several of the boys have been fishing this week.

Price Towels made a business trip to Georgetown last Monday.

Born — March 15th, 1885, to Samuel Singleton and wife, a daughter.

The singing school was organized last Saturday. Bright prospects.

The Satterwhite farm was not offered for sale last Saturday as expected.

Messrs. F. M. Scofield and J. H.
Bailey were born in Louisville this week.

Mrs. Maggie Hawkins, who has been sick for a week or two, is convalescent.

Claude Sargent, of Jessamine county, is in this neighborhood visiting friends and relatives.

At the sale of Mr. C. Wm. Taylor
last Saturday the articles offered brought good prices.

The question now agitating the mind of the curious is, "Which is healthier, hard or soft boiled eggs?"

W. H. Hawkins' candidacy for Assessor will remain in tact to the end,
other reports notwithstanding.

From present indications a larger acreage of corn will be planted than usual in this section than usual.

Rev. Jas. Irvin, of the Island of New Zeland, will preach at Bridgeport Christian Church to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

Regular services at South Benson Church to-day and to-morrow at 11 o'clock each day. Rev. T. J. Stevenson, pastor.

The nomination of Ben Bennett for Jailer of Shelby county is a source of gratification to his many friends in this section.

Rev. L. H. Sulin, of Owen county, will preach at Evergreen Church tomorrow night. Services to commence at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Mary Robinson, Mrs. Fannie Parrent and Mrs. Georgiana Hawkins have each been considerably worse
during the past week.

As the future welfare of our county depends in a great measure on the moral training the pupils receive in common schools, trustees should be very careful in the selection of teachers. No security, no safety can exist without a rigid observance of the moral law.

Belle Point.

Mr. N. I. McDaniel visited Sulvis
Tuesday on business.

Mr. N. G. Blackford has moved to the Newman place on Benson.

Miss Ida Ziegler has returned home after a protracted visit to Pennsylvania.

Miss Sue Joyce is teaching a three-months' school in Blair street schoolhouse.

Mr. Louis A. Moore has rented Col.
Pryor's farm on Benson, and will move
there Monday.

Mr. G. F. McQueen and family, of Lexington, are visiting Mrs. M.'s mother, Mrs. Amerle Lewis.

Mr. W. H. Lewis has bought from Mr. Harry Polgrave the property he lately occupied on Benson street. Price $1,500 cash.

Mr. Ed. Hansbrough was confined to his room several days last week with a severe cold. He is able to work on the new Champion mill this week.

Mr. Jno. Spalding and wife, of Shelby county and Messrs. Noah and Francis Golin, of this county, visited the family of Mr. Louis A. Moore on Sunday last.

The new Chapel and school-house is progressing rapidly. Messrs. Coleman and Smith are pushing the work right along. It will only be a few weeks now until we can hold Sunday school there.

Mr. James Cheany, of Lexington, has rented the Brown Cottage from Mr. J. N. Crutcher, and also his new store-room adjoining the Champion saw-mill. He will start a nice family grocery in it the first of next month.

Mr. Dood Gilpin, of Bald Knob, has purchased a lot from Mr. Jno. Jno.
Crutcher, on the Blair street hill, and and will invest part of the $2,500 that he received from the sale of his electric race mare, Hippo Cat, in erecting a handsome residence in the near future.

Several weeks ago the sidewalks in places on Penn street were torn up, and part of the stone fence torn down at the corner of Front and Todd streets, and a few weeks later the street lamps were knocked down and broken. The Council has now taken the matter in hand and offered a reward for the parties who did this and if they are caught they will be severely dealt with.

Prof. Wayland Graham

DEAR SIR:—We desire to return to you and all those persons who so kindly assisted in the entertainment at the Opera house recently. At this place our most sincere thanks. We will ever be grateful for your kindness and generosity on that occasion. Very respectfully,
W. L. PENCE,
JNO. N. CRUTCHER,
JAS. A. VIOLET.

Trustees.

When the flood is loaded with impurities, and moves sluggishly in the veins, an alternative is needed. This condition of the vital fluid cannot last long without serious results. There is nothing better than Ayer's Sarsaparilla to purify the blood and impart energy to the system.

The One Gallows School House.

The joy of the people of our end of the city (which is Craw) knew no bounds when it was noise around that our bosses intended to give us a school. But when we learned that they intended to give us one-gallows
we were very much surprised.

The truth is the tax-payers of North Frankfort will never be satisfied with a little pitiful public school building, to cost only three or four thousand dollars, while from twenty-five to thirty thousand dollars of the joint property will be expended on the building and furnishing a pretentious edifice for school purposes on the South Side. This matter might as well be understood and acted by our authorities first as last.

Each ward in the city is justly entitled to a school building equal in capacity and expense to any one of both the others and in a short time bound to have it or there will be a tremendous rookery kicked up around the ears of somebody. For those citizens of the city who have seen the interests of this part of the city, we trust, will be educated and informed by the authorities until this part of the city has become a by-word, and our property in a large measure, practically confiscated. In effect the same confiscation extends to the educational and moral right of very many of the children growing up in this side of the river. It is fully aroused to a sense of those municipal rights and interests. We have made up our mind that those rights and interests shall not be sacrificed in that school matter. We constitute a large majority of the population in the city, and the bulk of taxes come into the treasury and demand at least an equal division of all benefits, school or otherwise, derivable either directly or indirectly from these taxes or lotteries, either or both. It is well known to every citizen that fall and spring we have no roads but those that fall and spring, and it is not necessary to particularize at this time. It can be done when necessary. These brief suggestions ought to be sufficient to all parties having control and final decision of this important question. They will be, if our city fathers are either one-half just, or half wise.

ROUNDABOUT -- Supplement.

FRANKFORT, KY., MARCH 20, 1886.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

FURNISHED BY GLOVER & DURRITT, PROPRIETORS LOUISVILLE TOBACCO WHOLESALE HOUSE.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for New Burley:

The receipts and sales thus week have been higher than for some time past, the result of the recent unfavorable weather conditions. There has been some improvement in prices in the past few days on all grades of Burley tobacco, and especially this true of the medium grades of flilly leaf. The sales for the year amount to 2,507 hds., and the sales for the year amount to 29,301 hds., against 29,237 hds. for the corresponding period last year. The sales of the new crop to date amount to 27,218 hds., and the receipts for the week are 1,470 hds.

As one who has suffered, and knows by bitter experience what he says, I implore every one who reads these words not to neglect the slight symptoms of kidney difficulty. No one can afford to hazard such chance.

I make the foregoing statement based upon facts which I can substantiate to the letter. The welfare of those who may possibly be suffering such as I was is an ample inducement for me to take the step I have, and if I can successfully warn others from the dangerous path in which I once walked I am willing to endure all the professional and personal consequences.

J. B. HENXON, M. D.,
Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 30,

Sandridge.

Mr. John Gordon's boat is moving up stream.

Mr. Jas. Adams is very ill with pneumonia.

Mr. Sam Johnson, who has been very sick, is improving and hopes to be out again soon.

The latest information from Mr. San. McDaniel is that he is lying at the point of death.

Mr. Warren Aynes wants to buy a good work horse and employ a hand to work on his farm.

Mr. Jas. P. Gordon, candidate for Jailer, returned home a few days since from an extended trip over the county, and says he still has the heels of the boys.

I regret not being able to attend the meeting of the Teachers' Association on Saturday, but trust that this very important organization will be kept up, as it is very useful.

Mr. Silas Harlan removed last week to Horsehoe Bend, and Mr. M. Thompson removed to Henry county. Messrs. Sam'l Downey and J. D. Onan are our new neighbors in their stead.

Mr. Louis Miles and Miss Nancy M. Gordon were married on Thursday, the 11th inst., at the residence of the bride's father. Mr. Mack Bailey and Miss Parmelia Hughes were also married on the same evening at the residence of the bride's father, Rev. Jas. A. Peters officiated in both instances.

Bald Knob.

Street cars next.

J. Berry Duncan is some better at this writing.

E. Q. Lee went to Louisville last week with his tobacco.

Mr. Henry Rogers has been spending the past week in Louisville.

Harry Rogers, Jr., of Tioga, visited in this vicinity last Sunday.

Tom Box & Bro. are doing a good business with their saw-mill.

Wallace Rogers was out here last week drumming for a wholesale firm in New York city.

Nick Carr delivered an address before the citizens of this place last Thursday evening in regard to the various county officers to be elected this year.

Dr. Robinson is particularly fond of flowers, especially the daisy.

We understand the candidates treated their supporters at Harp last Tuesday with plenty of hamboozle juice, and several went away with the complaint of their heads swimming.

Miss Cynthia Poole returned home last evening from a visit to relatives on Sand M., le.

Tom Lee and wife, from near Consolation, visited relatives near here last Sunday.

WANTED.—A printing press at this place to do the public printing, also love stories, new jokes, wit and humor. By the way, Mr. Zeke Young, we think you could get position. First come first served.

Mr. —— Scotton of Frankfort, spent Tue. night with Ned Lee.

There will be a Sunday-school organized at Lebanon Church first Sunday in April, in which great interest should be taken, to train and prepare the youthful mind in a way that they should go in future, God speed the good work and may it prevent us thoughtful and earnest and see that their dear children attend regularly.

Esp. John B. Hamilton, of Benson, was in this vicinity last Sunday.

Mrs. Sol. Harris has purchased in New York and shipped to this city one of the finest lines of dry goods, novelties and millinery ever brought here. From the invoice it is learned she has purchased everything that is new and stylish, which will be sold cheaper than the cheapest. It will be to your interest to examine the new stock of goods on arrival. SOL. HARRIS

Pear Ridge.

The prevailing fashions on the Ridge this Spring will be ten yards of stout Merimac, with hemstitch trimmings inside with intelligence, wit and behavior.

Mrs. Mary Pattie continues to be the reigning belle of Benson. Mrs. Pattie has such winning ways as to charm both old and young.

The citizens along our contemplated branchpike "waxeth warm" some want the road this way, and others that. Some over a house and others under a hood. Horrid!

An adjacent Republican brother predicts from the signs of the times that in 1888, two-thirds of the adult male population of Franklin will be office seekers, the other third in the poor house.

The desired address of Prof. Tracy is Frankfort, Ky. He will always rejoice to hear of the spiritual and temporal welfare of his former loving and obedient pupils at Sandridge.

The people have come to the decision that a change in the office of Jailer would incur expense to the county. Mr. Sheehan's past administration is pronounced to be wise and economical.

Mr. Louis Chouteau is building a palatial residence on Paradise Hill, over the Devil's Hollow. Mr. Chouteau can look down with complacency on his enemies as they pass into the Devil's pit.

This is how Uncle Remus got religion. While the good deacon was presenting the cup last Sunday in church, Uncle Remus with great reverence stowed away the emblem. Then returning the empty vessel he said: "Fill em up again, boss; how I do lub de Lord."

About half a dozen gentlemen from Craw, with a few white brothers, held their weekly caucus last evening at Hell Gate in the Devil's Hollow. After the bottles had been drained, the Chairman arose and said: "Now, gentlemen, de man who fills dese bottles again is just."

A very enjoyable concert largely attended by the people of this vicinity, took place at Pea Ridge school house last Wednesday night, which will be repeated every Wednesday night until further notice. All lovers of good music, vocal and instrumental, are cordially invited to be present.

Professor Tracy will commence a night school here next week in order to give any one a chance to improve their minds who are unable to attend a day school. Judging from the number of names already signed it is sure to be a success.

Col. Thomas B. Ford, of Frankfort, is the first legitimate nomine on the list for State Superintendent of Public Instruction. It will be generally conceded that no native gentleman of this proud Commonwealth will be so indecentous as to exhibit his honored name against the father of thousands of school-benefited children. The man who has donated time and money to educate the poor children of Kentucky.

Forks of Elkhorn.

Gardening time.

Plow deep while culdites sleep.

Good-bye cold weather—until next week.

Bro. Si. Threlkeld is able to be out again.

Everybody seems busy, even the candidates.

Mr. Henry Guynn is reported on the sick list.

Woodlake and the Forks were well represented at Georgetown last Monday.

Thanks to Messrs. H. and J. Stedman for subscribing to the ROUNDABOUT.

Mrs. G. C. Hughes left last Monday for Greenwell, Ohio, to visit relatives and friends.

Telephone connection at Woodlake between White Hall and the Thomas House.

The overseer at Woodlake laundry is very ignorant over his opponent at Frankfort.

Misses Jennie Goldfield and Jennie Mackay, of C. C. College, spent last Saturday in our home.

Prof. —— At the residence of Mr. Joseph —— near Woodlawn on last Sat. evening, Mr. Conn. ——, aged nineteen, developed pneumonia.

Mr. W. M. Wilkerson had nine sticks of dynamite last Monday by spikes from the log engine. The loss is estimated at $1,000.

Mr. Mike Sullivan had quite an accident last Friday morning by falling from his car. He received several bruises but fortunately had no bones broken. He thinks it a miracle that he escaped with his life.
